

Baritone Jack Chandler is from Arlington, Virginia. Mr. Chandler's recent credits include Belcore (L'elisir d'amore), Le Dancaire and Morales (Carmen), Bill Bobstay (H.M.S. Pinafore), Schaunard (La bohème), Slim (Of Mice and Men), Claudio (Béatrice et Bénédicte), Sir Berkley (Der Vampyr), Mr. Lindquist (A Little Night Music), Sciarrone (Tosca), Stewpot (South Pacific), and Dottore Grenvil (La Traviata). In the 2020-21 season, Jack was an Artist in Residence at Pensacola Opera, where he covered the role of Escamillo in Bizet's Carmen. He also covered the role of Captain Corcoran in the company's production of H.M.S. Pinafore. In March, Jack returns to Pensacola to sing Fiorello and the Official in Rossini's Il barbiere di Siviglia.

Jack is an alumnus of the Aspen Music Festival and School, where he studied with Vinson Cole for three summers. He earned a master's degree from Florida State University under the instruction of David Okerlund.